

Best Summer Ever-Homeschool Edition

Week Six

Spirit

This week, dwell on how/why the Lord has called you to homeschool. Remembering this will bring you peace and encouragement when you are exhausted.

Husband

Chat with your hubby about both of your own school experiences. This will help you create a vision of what you want (and don't want) in your school.

Children

Continue working on curriculum lists for all of your children. Determine what subjects can be combined, and what you might need for your toddler/preschooler.

Home

Create a chore list and cleaning schedule for yourself and your children this week. Getting started now establishes a nice routine for the school year.

Get Ready

Research field trip options in your city and/or surrounding cities. It is so nice to have a list and then you can work through it all school year!
