

Divine Strategies for the School Year

for Moms

“If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. “ James 1:5

Questions for God:

1. Lord, is there anything I should know about my child right now?
2. What Scriptures should I be praying for my child this school year?
3. What prayers should I be praying over them right now?
4. Show me any areas of my life where I am not trusting you with my child. Help me to give them over to you.
5. Lord, who are their friends for this season? How can I pour into them?
6. Lord, what are ways I can minister to my child’s heart; give me ideas to cultivate a close relationship with them.
7. What hymn or praise song do you have for my child in this season? Help me to sing it for them and over them (if they are older, you could tell them God gave you a song for them). Be sure to print it out and hang it up in their rooms!

Prayer to Pray for Your Children

Lord, see in them what I cannot see.
Lord, bring to light what I do not know.
Lord, teach them of what I am not aware.
Lord, whisper to them what I have forgotten.
Lord, warn them of what I have omitted.
Lord, be for them what I cannot be.
Lord, love them, for you are all they need.”

Lord, let my children be godly, responsible, respectful, fully dedicated to You, hunger for the truth, and discerning about friends. Amen.
